

New York City Vaccine Protocol for Access Intelligence Events

It's Safest to Meet in NYC! New York City requires that all Most Powerful Women Celebration attendees show proof of vaccination. You will be required to show proof of vaccination when you pick up your badge at the event along with your photo ID.

Eligible proof of vaccination includes:

- A photo or hard copy of your vaccination card
- NYC COVID Safe App
- New York State Excelsior App

If you no longer have a record of your vaccination, contact your State/Local Health Department. If you are currently registered for the event but are not vaccinated, please contact Brittany King at bking@accessintel.com To learn more about New York City's vaccine requirement, please visit: <https://www.nycgo.com/coronavirus-information-and-resources-for-travelers>

For more information about the vaccine mandate, please refer to the Key to NYC FAQ Document.
